

International conference on project management June 13-14, 2019, Slovakia

Project management association of Slovakia (hereinafter SPPR) is organizing international conference dedicated to 25 years of project management in Slovakia

21st Century Projects

in Carlton hotel in Bratislava on June 13-14, 2019.

- Are we ready for the “projectification”?
- How the innovation influences our tomorrows?
- What are the biggest challenges in public sector projects?
- Which tools and skills are wanted?

Excellent speakers, impressive stories, hot updates directly from the source, e.g. from Mrs. Elena Osipova (Russia), Mr. Joop Schefferlie (Netherlands), Mr. Mladen Radujkovič (Croatia), Mr. Vladimír Obradovič (Serbia), Mr. Ján Bačko (Slovakia) and from many others.

Come and look for answers, exchange practical experience and let yourself to get inspired.

Registration is now open!

Considered target group is project management community (managers, project managers, academic field, educational agencies, students, state and public sector), friends and fans of project management.

For actual information please visit <https://www.21centuryprojects.eu>

In case of any question please contact us: youngcrew@sppr.sk | Rado: +421 901 903 234